

An item of news passed from a known, reliable source:

Subject: Here are the monks who caused the violence in Lhasa.....!!!!

“It’s worse than one would have thought...even with all our imagination! This is how China spreads disinformation... This photo is of Chinese soldiers getting ready to change into monks’ robes.

Photo taken on 20th March by the News Agency of Great Britain (British News agency?)

The monks of Lhasa have said that they were locked up and took no part in the demo’s.

Some people have known about this since 20th March thanks to this photo.

It has been to Italy and come back to us.

We hope it will cross all frontiers and be seen throughout the world.”

Please pass it on, make use of it if you can.
