

Tim Radcliffe OP

“Our greatest dignity as Christians is citizens of the Kingdom, members of Christ's body. One expression of this is acting as citizens of our political communities, exercising our voice and vote for the common good.”