

Christ Among the Ruins

Finding Light in Gaza's Darkness

NJPN UK & Pax Christi England and Wales

December 1st at 7.30pm

Register Your Interest to attend HERE

Liz Allcock is a humanitarian protection specialist for 20 years in international development and humanitarian sectors. She worked with UNRWA in Gaza following the aftermath of the 2014 war and is MAP's (Medical Aid for Palestine's) Head of Humanitarian Protection in Gaza

Robert Cohen is the chair of trustees for the human rights charity Amos Trust, which has long-standing partners in Palestine. Earlier this year he completed his PhD study into young British Jews who are challenging the centrality of Israel and Zionism in Jewish life.

Sue McClellan Church Engagement Lead at Embrace the Middle East and Associate Minister at Coventry Cathedral. She has travelled widely in Israel and Palestine, leading groups and study tours, and speaks all over the UK about Embrace's work and the ministry of Christians in the region.

Ann Farr is a former Board Member and Chair of Pax Christi England and Wales, member of Pax Christi International' Working Group on Justice in Palestine and Israel, helping to develop advocacy and campaigning programmes. Former Ecumenical Accompanier and frequent visitor to Israel and Palestine.

PAX CHRISTI
England and Wales
Working for peace through education, campaigning & active nonviolence

This webinar is being jointly hosted by the National Justice & Peace Network UK (NJPN) and Pax Christi England and Wales.