

Forgotten People Forgotten Places

BEING CHURCH

ON THE MARGINS

Forgotten people, forgotten places
Pope Francis calls us to be “a Church which is poor and for the poor”. To be with those on the margins as equal partners, enabling them to find their own solutions to the issues they face.

Join us in 2019 to explore mission, theological reflection and social action with people who have been pushed to the margins of society by poverty. How can we build churches that...

- are interested in building the kingdom, not growing the church?
- listen to voices from the margins?
- expect to be challenged and changed by our neighbours?
- put an emphasis on sharing food and hospitality?
- are hungry and thirsty for justice?

Speakers

Revd Deirdre Brower Latz has worked as a pastor in urban/marginalised communities in Bristol and Manchester, and lectures at the Nazarene Theological College in Manchester.

Professor Anthony Reddie is the leading scholar in the practice of Black theology in grassroots communities of faithful practice.

We will also hear inspiring and challenging stories from churches and groups that are living out the vision of a ‘church of the poor’ – being church on the margins of our society.

Workshops

There will be workshops from a range of organisations and speakers, all looking creatively at how our churches can be more open to people on the margins.

Children and young people

Children and young people are a vital part of the NJPN conference. There will be a crèche for children under 5 and a programme of activities for 5–11-year-olds. 12–18-year-olds will explore the conference theme in an active and thought-provoking weekend.

FRIDAY 26 –
SUNDAY 28 JULY 2019
HAYES CONFERENCE
CENTRE, DERBYSHIRE

For more information and booking forms contact Geoff Thompson, NJPN Administrator

admin@justice-and-peace.org.uk

020 7901 4864

www.justice-and-peace.org.uk/conference

41st annual conference of the National Justice
and Peace Network

Organised in partnership
with

Forgotten People Forgotten Places

BEING CHURCH

ON THE MARGINS

Forgotten people, forgotten places
Pope Francis calls us to be “a Church which is poor and for the poor”. To be with those on the margins as equal partners, enabling them to find their own solutions to the issues they face.

Join us in 2019 to explore mission, theological reflection and social action with people who have been pushed to the margins of society by poverty. How can we build churches that...

- are interested in building the kingdom, not growing the church?
- listen to voices from the margins?
- expect to be challenged and changed by our neighbours?
- put an emphasis on sharing food and hospitality?
- are hungry and thirsty for justice?

Speakers

Revd Deirdre Brower Latz has worked as a pastor in urban/marginalised communities in Bristol and Manchester, and lectures at the Nazarene Theological College in Manchester.

Professor Anthony Reddie is the leading scholar in the practice of Black theology in grassroots communities of faithful practice.

We will also hear inspiring and challenging stories from churches and groups that are living out the vision of a ‘church of the poor’ – being church on the margins of our society.

Workshops

There will be workshops from a range of organisations and speakers, all looking creatively at how our churches can be more open to people on the margins.

Children and young people

Children and young people are a vital part of the NJPN conference. There will be a crèche for children under 5 and a programme of activities for 5–11-year-olds. 12–18-year-olds will explore the conference theme in an active and thought-provoking weekend.

For more information and booking forms contact Geoff Thompson, NJPN Administrator

admin@justice-and-peace.org.uk

020 7901 4864

www.justice-and-peace.org.uk/conference

41st annual conference of
the National Justice
and Peace Network

Organised in partnership
with

